David Grimes

Sometimes in life people realize it might be their turn to take on the task of representing their community's concerns and aspirations.

My name is David Grimes. I am a part time pastor at J-Link "Linked to Jesus for Life" and owner of Grimmy's Lure Co.

Recently, like so many others, I've become deeply concerned as I see the winds of change blow into our schools. While change is not always bad. Change for the sake of following along with trends from areas far removed from our own, is causing concern, division and hurt within our communities.

Schools should be the place where kids can be kids and focus on mastering the skills which will take them wherever they wish to go in this life. Schools should not be a battleground for ideologies and political points.

The people of this area share small town, rural - what we like to call common sense – values. We welcome everyone. We embrace all ways of life. We understand that public places such as schools should be politics free zones.

I am running for a position on the NESD board because I believe the voices of the people in the Carrot River/Arborfield areas are not being heard. Also, this insistence on politicizing so many aspects of our schools is stretching the budget so thin that we risk being unable to deliver quality education to smaller communities as well as the larger ones.

For over 50 years, I have called North East Saskatchewan home. Most of my friendships were first formed during my elementary and high school days in Carrot River.

My love of fishing often finds me at E.B. Campbell Dam dragging another walleye or pike onto the shore and into the frying pan.

Like you, I am committed to the friends and neighbours who call this area home. Like you, I too believe there must be a better way.

Sincerely,
David Grimes
