I am seeing re-election to the NESD board to continue the work from before. Priorities are as follows:

- Help teachers who overwhelmed and don't feel supported.
- Help school administrators to focus what is important in their unique school.
- Help every student reach their full potential.
- Give parents a voice in the school division.
- Restore the focus back to the basics of reading, writing & arithmetic.
- Create a work environment where teachers are empowered and passionate about education again.
